Lagoon 620

Lagoon 620 Spirit of Adventure catamaran was designed for the most demanding of travellers – including people of all ages and those with reduced mobility.

Numerous amenities, excellent equipment, as well as the luxurious finishes ensure great comfort and true relaxation.

This yacht has 3 guest cabins and 1 crew cabin. The price of a charter includes the captain and a hostess with a great cooking skills. EUR 7,000 of the so-called APA (Advanced Provisioning Allowance) fee have to be added to the price of the charter - it covers the skipper price and is used to cover additional expenses related to the charter such as: groceries, drinks, marinas and ports fees and fuel which have to be refilled before the end of the cruise. The sum of EUR 7,000 is settled at the end of the trip by the skipper, based on the bills and receipts. The final settlement shows whether it was higher or lower than expected. If the budget is exceeded, the difference will be covered by the charterer.
